Praise from Meeting Planners:

Daria's continual focus to serve others is what makes her unique. I have seen her hugs of joy and tears of concern. I've seen someone who invests all of herself into people. In fact, Daria is so effective that I asked her to assist me when I started my business. Socialization is her superpower – she has the ability to connect with anyone from any position in life. This comes from her passion to help others but also from her own life experiences. She can empathize with those who have struggled along and those who live every day as blessed as she is.

As the founder of Women in Business Networking WiBN – a national women's organization, I have had the pleasure of knowing Daria Dillard Stone since 2011. She is an outstanding leader and has achieved many accomplishments within her career and community. Daria is an intelligent, capable, dedicated and personable professional that has paved the way for many. She is always quick on her feet, with sensible reactions in all the circumstances. I highly recommend Daria as a speaker or workshop leader. Daria was recognized as one of the 2012 Top 25 Women To Watch – and we are watching her!
